CHORUS:

*I see the moon up over my head
It's full and it's round and it shines on my bed
And I wonder someday will I live there instead
On the cheek of my friend, the moon.*

I see the sun when night turns to day
It shines on my work and it shines on my play
When it sets, then I know it's the end of the day
And I might see my friend the moon
Chorus

I see the stars when daylight is done
They sparkle like diamonds and bits of the sun
And they're brightest and best when the moon takes a rest
When it's sleeping my friend the moon
Chorus:
